Organizations and Civic Engagement

- The Polytechnic - Photography Editor and Systems Coordinator Spring 2016 - Present
 - I assist in publishing The Polytechnic, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's student newspaper, on a weekly basis, contributing, editing, and proofing photos from various campus events and activities. I am also responsible in helping develop and maintain numerous facets of The Polytechnic's systems and web infrastructure.
- Web Technologies Group - Vice Chair September 2016 - Present
 - I help develop, manage, and maintain numerous open-source web projects that help to better the college experience for students at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.
- HackRPI - Organizer and Mentor November 2016
 - I helped organize HackRPI, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's annual hackathon which attracts over 500 students from various institutions in the northeastern United States and beyond. During the hackathon, I was one of numerous mentors available to answer questions and provide programming help to hackers.
- RCOS (Rensselaer Center for Open Source) - Mentor and Member September 2016 - Present
 - As a member of RCOS, I contribute to numerous open-source projects, many of which were created by other students, as well as developing and maintaining open-source projects of my own. RCOS provides a constructive and supportive environment that benefits my development and project skills.
